Day 5

6:00

Morning game drive in Mudumu game reserve

Embark on another wilderness experience as the first light of day breaks over Mudumu Game Reserve with a sunrise game drive.

As we set out before dawn in the cool morning air and soft light, the landscape is painted with shades of gold and pink, and the rising sun casts long shadows, creating a picturesque backdrop.

Keep your eyes peeled for the elusive predators that may still be active after a night of hunting, like lions and leopards.

As the sun climbs higher in the sky, the savannah comes alive with activity. Herds of antelope may graze peacefully, giraffes stretch their long necks to reach succulent leaves, and elephants lumber gracefully through the landscape. The ever-changing tableau of life in Mudumu is a spectacle to behold.

The morning game drive is not just about the wildlife but also the tranquility and serenity of the natural surroundings. It's a time to absorb the profound beauty of the African bush, to breathe in the fresh air, and to feel a deep connection with the land and its inhabitants.

Return to the lodge for a hearty breakfast and a day of relaxing before embarking on our next wildlife adventure.

15:00 - 3 hr 30 min

Sunset Game viewing cruise on the Kwando river and Sundowners

As the sun sets over the serene waters of the Kwando River, we again prepare for a magical afternoon and evening of wonder and tranquillity. A sunset cruise on the Kwando River followed by sundowners is an experience that will etch itself into your memory forever.

We float off into the gentle current of the Kwando on a stable and comfortable riverboat, meandering through pristine wilderness and lush riverine vegetation. The reflective surface of the river mirrors the flaming colors of the African sky as the sun paints the horizon with shades of orange, pink, and gold.

As we drift along, the riverbanks are alive with wildlife. Elephants may be spotted on the river's edge, enjoying a late afternoon drink, while hippos submerge themselves, only to resurface with a contented snort. Crocodiles sunbathe on the sandy banks, and birdlife in all its diversity fills the air with melodious calls.

We find a tranquil spot to anchor where we are treated to sundowners – refreshing drinks and delectable snacks, allowing a toast to the day's end in this idyllic setting.

The sunset cruise and sundowners on the Kwando River offer a profound connection with the untamed wilderness of Africa, an experience that embodies the essence of a true safari adventure.

The amazing bush and wildlife experience is completed by nights around the campfire re-telling stories of the day's wildlife encounters. Star-studded African skies provide a magnificent backdrop for unforgettable evenings, where the wild symphony of the reserve takes center stage.

A night around an african campfire - truly one of lifes great experiences!

Day 8

6:00

Morning game drive in Moremi game reserve

Experience the full beauty of the Moremi Game Reserve and the Okavango Delta, with an early morning game drive.

At first light with the sky still soft pastel colours, we head off in our open safari vehicle.

Moremi and the Delta teems with a wide array of wildlife, and you might spot tracks left by elusive predators like lions and leopards, who often hunt during the cooler morning hours.

Spot game like zebra, giraffe and the special aquatic mammal - the red lechwe - grazing on the edges of the flood plains

Also during these early hours the incredible diversity of birdlife becomes active. There is always the chance to spot rare endemic or seasonal migrant waterbirds.

Stop for a coffee break next to the floodplains and get the opportunity to watch nature more closely .

Birdsong fills the air, and nature comes alive with the chatter of mischievous monkeys to the distant calls of birds of prey and the haunting call of the African Fish Eagle.

Appreciate not only the larger wildlife but also the wide incredible diversity of bird species in the area. The reed-lined waterways are often dotted with jacanas and other wading birds, offering ample birding opportunities amid the picturesque landscape.

Moremi Game Reserve is renowned for its rich birdlife, making it a birdwatcher's paradise.

13:30 - 5 hr

An afternoon on the Okavango: Island picnic lunch then Sunset cruise and game viewing by boat

We leave our camp and head to the boat jetty to embark for an afternoon of adventure on the Okavango delta.

Watching wildlife all along the way by boat, we explore multiple channels of the delta looking out for elephants as they gather on the riverbanks, dipping their massive frames into the water, peacefully munching away on lush grass, undisturbed by our presence, while lechwe bound through the waters and buffalo wallow in pools at the edges.

We park the boat against the shore of another island in the Delta and unpack our tables and chairs in the wilderness for a stunning picnic under the shade of trees. Keeping an eye on elephant and other game from a safe distance - each of us enjoying our own meals.

After a leisurely lunch, immersed in nature, we get back on the boat to head further up the river to enjoy a sunset cruise along the Okavango River

A truly transcendent experience that unveils the Okavango delta's enchanting beauty in the most captivating light.

As the sun gets lower, casting a warm, golden glow on the tranquil waters, the boat drifts gently revealing more of the pristine wilderness.

Exotic birdlife fills the air, their silhouettes vivid against the colours of the setting sun.

The ambiance and the allure of the Okavango River at sunset create an unforgettable moment of serenity and wonder, as nature's finest display unfolds before your eyes.

As the sun sets, sip on a Gin and Tonic and experience the stillness of the evening broken only by the soothing sounds of the river and the calls of the wild.

Another truly magnificent experience!

6:00 - Central Africa Time

Morning game drive in Moremi game reserve

Experience more of the full beauty of the Moremi Game Reserve and the Okavango Delta, with another early morning game drive before we depart for our next adventure

10:00 DEPARTURE - Central Africa Time - 4 hr

Fly to your next Adventure - The mesmerising Mozambique coast

After a short drive from camp we again board our super Cessnas and depart from the Xakanaka airstrip.

Highlighting the unparalleled freedom and flexibility offered by Africa Sky Runners, we choose to fly to Mozambique, instead of returning South to South Africa.

Mozambique's Vilanculos - another wild waterway. This time a stunning indian ocean coastline.

The Cessnas soar above the boundless landscapes of this diverse region, not confined by rigid schedules or predetermined routes.

The vast Indian Ocean coastline of Mozambique beckons with its stunning beauty, and our flexible approach ensures that you can embrace the call of adventure when and where it speaks the loudest.

A brief stopover in Francistown for customs formalities, we fly to Vilancoulos and enter Mozambique - our 6th country.

14:00 - Central Africa Time

Fly low level from Vilancoulos to Inhambane - and a scenic flight over the Bazaruto archipeligo

We leave Vilancoulos and fly down the coast to the town of Inhambane.

And we use the opportunity to have another special Africa Sky Runners experience: An exhilarating low-level scenic flight over the mesmerizing Bazaruto Archipelago, a journey that unveils a tapestry of natural beauty and azure waters like no other. You're greeted with a sweeping panorama of the Indian Ocean's turquoise expanse, its hues merging seamlessly with the sky. The archipelago's islands emerge from the horizon like scattered jewels, each one adorned with pristine white sands that meet the gentle lapping waves. From the vantage point of the low-flying aircraft, you witness the intricate details of the coastline, the contours of the islands, and the rich coral reefs that encircle them.

The flight takes you over the shimmering waters, revealing a palette of blues that range from the palest aquamarine near the shores to the deep indigo farther out. As you soar lower, the palm-fringed shores come into focus, revealing secluded coves, hidden lagoons, and vibrant coral gardens just beneath the surface. Schools of tropical fish dart through the crystalline shallows, and the occasional glimpse of a majestic ray or a gliding turtle adds to the awe-inspiring spectacle.

The low-level flight over the Bazaruto Archipelago offers a breathtaking encounter with nature's artistry, leaving you with memories of an aerial expedition that is nothing short of awe-inspiring.
